Obituary

On December 16, 1961, the late William and Rosie Lee Fahie, were blessed with the birth of their daughter Julia Constance Fahie, lovingly called “Ju Ju”. This precious event took place at Sydenham Hospital in New York City. Julia departed this earth on Tuesday, September 21, 2021 at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York, NY.

Julia’s father and older sister, Marjorie Dempsey, passed away when she was very young. Her sister was survived by her son Deandrea Dempsey who was raised along with Julia, by her mother, Rosie. They resided in New York where she attended both public and catholic schools. She became truly fascinated with the study of medicine and the healthcare industry, while attending Saint Pius High School in Bronx, NY. On her journey to learn more she attended Utica College of Syracuse University, Lehman College, and Mercy College all in the state of New York. She worked for many years in Central Sterilization at Mount Sinai Hospital, Lenox Hill Hospital, Cabrini Hospital and lastly Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center.

She was a compassionate soul lending a helping hand to all she encountered, believing that all living things deserved a good life. Her retrospect on the value of life was a direct reflection of her devout faith in God. This faith was nurtured at an early age at the Greater Refuge Temple Church in Harlem, New York under the leadership of the late Bishop William L. Bonner. At church she participated in many functions and served on the Youth Usher Board, directed by the late Gwendolyn Shackerford.

Julia enjoyed traveling for pleasure especially to church conventions and her favorite place Colerain, NC. She was overjoyed when she meet family while vacationing in Tortola, British West Indies, the native home of her father. In addition, she enjoyed the finer things in life like shopping, dining, and more shopping. Julia lived life to the fullest and did it her way.

Julia leaves to mourn her nephew, Deandrea Dempsey (New York, NY), aunt, Evora Todman (New York, NY), great niece, Dejana Jones (Waterbury, CT), great great niece, Azaria Egypt Jackson (Waterbury, CT), godson, Aaron Savage (Maryland), and a host of cousins and friends.

We were all blessed to have known such a phenomenal woman. Her beautiful soul touched the lives of many. She will be forever remembered in our hearts.

Letting Go

The Angels gathered near your bed,
so very close to you,
For they knew the pain and suffering
that you were going through.

I thought about so many things,
as I held tightly to your hand.
Oh, HOW I WISHED that you were strong and happy once again.

But your eyes were looking homeward,
to that place beyond the sky.
Where JESUS held His outstretched arms,
it was time to say goodbye.

I struggled with my SELFISH THOUGHTS,
for I wanted you to stay.
So we could walk and talk again,
like we did - just yesterday.

But JESUS KNEW THE ANSWER,
and I knew He loved you so.
So I gave to you life's greatest gift,
the gift of letting go.

Now my heart will carry MEMORIES of the love you gave to me Until we meet again in heaven,
where the best is yet to be.
