Obituary

Glendoria Michelle Cagle Dubose, born on August 20, 1970 to Betty Jean Cagle and the late Clinton Blue. She departed from this world on September 10, 2021.

Glendoria was the mother of three children, two boys and one girl. She helped to financially provide for her family as a Home Health Aide and a Sales Clerk at Macy's Department Store.

Glendoria was spiritually inclined and also raised up in the church. She loved all different kinds of music and loved to have fun, dance and party. She was the life of the party whenever she was around.

One of the best things about Glendoria was her good heart and amazing spirit and if you really got to know her she had a beautiful soul. Although she had her own personal issues and struggles she was a very passionate person who loved to help. She was a great listener in the times when her kids, family and friends needed her most. Glendoria was married to James Dubose. Although her health slowly began to fail her down through the years, she would try her best to help her children, grandchildren and family as much as she could. Thank God for a wonderful mother, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, wife and bestfriend who has been there through good times and bad times to offer a helping hand, to give encouragement and to share her love and kindness. Her children and entire family are forever grateful to have had such was a wonderful blessing.

Glendoria Michelle Cagle Dubose leaves behind: three children, Richard Caldwell Cagle, Quanisha Sharmeeka Dubose and Dayquan Dubose; three grandchildren, Ja'miere Darren Caldwell, Denstiny Sharmeeka McCoy Baptiste and Rylee Ja'nai Caldwell Cagle; her mother, Betty Jean Cagle; six sisters, Pamela, Laura, Sharme Cagle, Debra, Rosie and Blanche Blue; three brothers, Dwayne, Donnill and Michael Cagle; two aunts, Judy and Brenda Cagle; uncle, Steven Cagle; husband, James Dubose; daughter-in-law, Jamilia Throne; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins which are too many to mention and her numerous friends, young and old that were like family to her, you know who you are. Love Always.
