Obituary

Shanaire Monae King Davis was the first born to parents, Wanda Goode and Theodore King of December 28, 1982 in New York, New York. On September 18, 2021, Shanaire departed this life with her family and close friends by her side.

Shanaire attended Holy Rosary Elementary School. She then attended Junior High School 45 in Harlem. Shanaire went on to Vanguard High School where she graduated and earned her High School Diploma in 2000. She was currently a Certified Nursing Assistant and was studying to become a Medical Assistant.

Shanaire was a devoted mother who adored her two children, Jashawn and Sariah. When her children were still very young Shanaire moved to Richmond, Virginia. Shanaire loved to visit Virginia's beaches, the malls and going out to eat with her family. When she wasn't out and about she loved to listen to music. Her favorite song was, "Nobody Is Suppose To Be Here" by Deborah Cox.

Virginia is also where Shanaire met the love of her life, Jovon Davis. They began a beautiful life together and married on July 28, 2019.

Shanaire's memory will forever be cherished by: her loving children, Jashawn and Sariah; husband, Jovon; stepdaughter, A'Kirah; parents, Wanda Goode and Theodore King; grandparents, Sammie and Margaret King, (the late Wilhelmina Williams) and James Goode; three sisters, Tiffany, Paris and Dominique; three brothers, Isaiah, Theo and Nykolas; godmother, Donna Hall; her best friend, Shareen Wilkerson; and a host of step-siblings, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and other family and friends.

Shanaire's life was a blessing, her memory is a treasure, she is loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

ALWAYS IN YOUR HEART

Picture me as I was
Full of life and love
Although not with you now,
I'm watching from above.
I know how much you miss me,
And I miss you too.
It was my time to leave,
As each of us will do.
Although not in your arms,
I'm always in your heart.
The precious love we shared,
Means we're never far apart.
