Obituary

Irene Elliott was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey on August 29, 1943 to Marion Hazelton and Eugene Johnson. On October 15, 1976 she wed Charles Elliott. They shared a life as one for 45 years. During their union, she spent the entire time raising son, David, daughter-in-law, Marcy, grandchildren, David Jr. and Lucas Kyle and great-grandchildren, Piper and Levi.

She was very well-loved by the community that she served as a school crossing guard for over 25 years. She was a loving, thoughtful person who always made sure that her son and grandchildren were always first. Even after her illness her primary concern was her family whom she loved immensely.

She fought a difficult battle with her illness and she will be truly missed. On September 26, 2021, God called His daughter home. Although she was loved by many here, it was time for her to begin her new journey among the clouds.

She leaves behind adored great-grandchildren, earnest grandchildren, loving daughter, loyal family and friends and a devoted husband. She will never be forgotten.

INTERMENT:
Rosehill Cemetery
Linden, New Jersey

It seems that 'death' has once again

Removed the 'flesh' that dies...yet

Eventually...Irene returns...to a place beyond the skies

Now...she'll become a 'SPIRIT SOUL'...she'll serve but out of sight...as

Eyes of men and women, too

E vade GOD's awesome might...yet

L o behold...she's kneeling down

L et her touch the robes of 'KINGS'

I rene smiled...Charles stared a while

O h my GOD...a choir sings...for

T hen and only then...my friends

The peace Irene will know...and just like that...and this is a fact believe in HIM...then 'go'
