As I Knew Him

A Tribute to my Husband

One or other must leave, one or the other must stay,
one or the other must grieve, that is forever the way.

That is the vow that was sworn, faithful 'til death do us part.
Braving what has to be borne, widening the ache in the heart.

One how so ever adored, first must be summoned away.

That is the will of the Lord- one or the other must stay!

My beloved husband George leaves a legacy of love and integrity with his family and those who knew him. He has left behind wonderful memories of a loving husband, grandfather and father. We are grateful for each and every day we got to see his glowing smile, and for the lessons learned and the remarkable strength he has shown during his many years of prolonged illness. He was a very proud independent man, who liked to work with his own hands. I used to watch him lifting heavy bags of flour and sugar to stock the grocery store that he managed. Somehow this is the way I remember him; bursting with energy and always with a bit of mischief in his eyes. George was never one to complain, but he continued to smile and entertain us during our visits to the nursing home.

George has set an exemplary example as a husband, father and grandfather. He was strong in spirit and compassionate, with a clever sense of humor. Above all, he loved and cherished his family and was a loyal friend.

We will miss him more than words can express. We love you.

Sleep on my beloved and take your rest.

Your beloved Wife, Marriet

Obituary

George Emmanuel Miller was born in Manchester, Jamaica, West Indies on November 27, 1939 and transitioned this life on Monday, October 4, 2021. He was the son of Dudley Miller and Ivy King.

He met and married his beloved wife Marriet Bell in March, 1994. George was a proud businessman in Jamaica who owned and operated a well-established grocery store for many years. He migrated to the United States in 2003 to join his family in the City of Paterson, New Jersey.

George later became ill and was under the care of his wife. As his condition worsened, he required additional care and was admitted to Lakeland Health Care Center, a long-term care facility. His fighting spirit never died; he continued to press his way to overcome many health challenges. In fact, his death was anticipated several times – but God brought him through with a mighty arm.

Today his fight is over and he is at rest – no more sickness, no more pain, no more hospitalizations or confinement – He is free at last.

He leaves to mourn his wife, Marriet Bell Miller, children, Barbara and Shameer; grandchildren, Aleatra, Malik, Jordan and Serein; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends. He will be sorely missed. His memory will live on forever in our hearts.

May his soul Rest in Peace.

What A Friend We Have In Jesus

What a friend we have in Jesus
All our sins and griefs to bear
And what a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer

CHORUS

Oh, what peace we often forfeit
Oh, what needless pain we bear
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged
Take it to the Lord in prayer

Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness
Take it to the Lord in prayer

Beyond The Sunset

We watched him suffer, day by day;

It caused us bitter grief;

To see him slowly pine away;

And could not give relief.

His weary hours and days of pain;

His troubled nights are past;

And in our aching hearts we know;

He has found sweet rest at last.

'Tis sweet to hope that we will meet again;

Where parting is no more;

And my dear husband I loved so well;

Has only gone before.

God knows how much I miss him;

He counts the tears I shed;

And whispers, "Hush, I will keep you;

Even though your husband is dead."

Some day, some time, my years shall see;

The face I loved so well.

His pain is over; His suffering is past

I bid him fond farewell at last.
