Obituary

Eric Lee Pelote was born in Manhattan, New York to the late Leroy and Catherine Pelote. Eric passed into eternal rest on September 25, 2021. He was the youngest of six children from this union.

At the age of ten, Eric gained nine additional siblings from the union of Leroy and Vivian Frazier.

Eric was educated in the New York City Public School System. Upon graduating from high school, Eric entered the job market and worked for a variety of businesses including the New York City Parks Department.

Affectionately known as “Pork Chop”, Eric had an outgoing and vibrant personality, he brought laughter to every occasion. He was a huge fan of Science Fiction, Kung Fu and Classic movies, and enjoyed introducing these films to his many nieces and nephews at an early age. He was also an avid reader and loved to discuss current affairs, but most importantly, Eric was a great listener. Through this gift he helped many family members and friends find solutions to their problems.

Eric was an active member of DeWitt Reformed Church in lower Manhattan where he contributed several hours volunteering wherever he was needed.

He leaves to cherish fond memories to: four brothers, Jerry, Gregory, Ronald and Ray; five sisters, Nancy, Pamela, Starling, Debbie and Crystal; ten nephews, Joseph, Grayson, Christopher, Lenny, Delvon, Ronald, Jr., Jason, Jonathan, Jermaine and Vincent, Jr.; eight nieces, LaChaun, Makina, Donna, LaTrice, Tyann, Jessica, Tiavon and Jazmine; also a host of aunts, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, other family members and many lifelong friends.

Sleep now Eric and take your rest. We all loved you, but God loves you best.

Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, 'Grieve not for me'. Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs, the good I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all. . . how I was truly blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.
