Obituary

Aloma Marie Kemp was born in Nassau, Bahamas on January 8, 1943. She was the second child of Dorothy and Arthur Kemp.

Aloma came to the United States at an early age, the family lived in Dania, Florida for a few years, then moved to Seaford, Delaware. After high school and the death of her mother, she arrived in Harlem, New York and met Robert Gunn and had three sons, Robert Gunn, Fredrick Gunn and Lamott Gunn.

Aloma finally settled in the Bronx, New York and raised her three boys and brother, sister, nieces and nephews.

The best way to describe Aloma is that she was generous, kind and caring. She was always smiling, sharing and thinking of others. Her whole life was helping others. To know her was to love her.

Aloma was preceded in death by her sister, Janet Kemp. She leaves to cherish her fond memories: three sons, Robert Gunn, Fredrick Gunn and Lamott Gunn; three sisters, Patricia Kemp, Harriet Kemp and Millicent Kemp; five brothers, Leroy Kemp, Alexander Kemp, Alfred Kemp, Martain Kemp and David Kemp; aunt, Margaret Roberts; grandchildren, Lamott, Antoine, Fredrick, Tyriq, Tayla, Namian, Nassir and Ariel; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Final Thoughts - My Departure Poem

God looked around His garden, and found an empty space; then He looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms, around you, lifted you to res, God's garden must be a beautiful place for He only takes the best. He knew that you were in pain. He knew you never would get well, upon this earth again. He saw the roads were getting rough; and the steps were hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone; for part of us went with You, the day God called you home.
