Obituary

Wilkins D. Jackson (Doug, Dougie) of West Orange was born on March 30, 1942. He was the eldest child of parents Wilkins and Juanita (Smith) Jackson, both deceased. He was also the first grandchild on both his maternal and paternal sides.

Douglas met and married the love of his life, Venice (Penny) nearly 39 years ago. He was affectionately known as Dad, Daddy, Pops, Old Man and Step Dad.

Wilkins was a former employee of Rosedale Cemetery for many years. He was predeceased by his children Douglas (Tiny), Kevin, Deirdra, and his brother Muhammad.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife Venice; his children, Mark Douglas (Tony), Shavonne, David, Kendra, Shaun, Venice (Beth), Devon, Tiwannah; his siblings Ilyasin, Sayyid and Dorothy (Dot) and a host of Grandchildren, great-grandchildren, Nieces, Nephews, Aunts & Uncles, Cousins, in-Laws, and friends will miss him dearly.

His passing as painful as it is for all who knew and loved him, comes with a degree of solace in knowing that he is no longer in pain. Rest In Paradise

Don't Grieve For Me

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.

I took his hand when I heard his call

I turned around and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace on a sunny day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A family shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good family, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seem all too brief

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.

God wanted me now; From pain I'm free.
