OBITUARY

Troy Justin Carter was born in Queens, New York on November 23rd, 1984, to Monica Jackson and Mark Carter. He was their second born. Before his school years he moved to Inwood. Troy spent his public school years attending Number 4 school and Number 2 school while holding a spot on the little league baseball team. By the end of 5th grade his football position was already solidified. While playing for the Inwood Buccaneers, Troy quickly became a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan.

During his Junior High school years he attended Lawrence Middle School, where he continued to perfect the craft of football. Troy began to idolize Michael Jordan. With his birth date being the 23rd and MJ's number being 23 it was destined. Troy's gentle, carefree, don't take shit from anybody spirit made him friends effortlessly. It made sense that he was everyone's favorite "fly guy" and not to mention an exceptional ladies man.

Spending the late 90's and early 00's in Lawrence High School, Troy made it cool to be a lightskin "fly guy". His favorite pastime was to chill with his family and friends, making them laugh. His 6'5 presence was unmatched.

At the age of 24, Troy became a father, changing him for the better. At 29 he became a father again. This time to a set of twin boys. When Troy wasn't working he was with his children. His children were his world.

Troy became an avia fisher and explorer. He would take his children on adventures every weekend. He had many titles but his proudest one was being a devoted father.

It is with sad regret that Troy departed earth on October 3rd, 2021. Troy is survived by his grandmother: Barbara Carter, his parents: Monica and Mark Carter, his children: Tiara Carter and Romello Carter, his siblings: NaShaun Carter, Jayshawn Carter, Samantha Carter, Amber Carter, and Faith Carter, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.
