Obituary

Vincent Augustus Brown was born on March 2, 1951 in the city of Kingston, Jamaica - West Indies. Vincent attended Vauxhall high school and graduated with honors. After graduating, he completed an overseas course in mechanics and received his certificate in mechanics.

Thereafter, Vincent joined the Supermarket family business, with his father Ronald Brown and his four brothers for over two decades; where he met his school sweet heart and wife to be Mavis Brown. Vincent and Mavis were married on November 29, 1989 in Kingston, Jamaica whereafter they resided in the Bronx for the next 30 years together.

For 29 years Vincent worked as an experienced mechanic and welder for the MTA New York City Transit. Vincent was a respected mentor and beacon of knowledge within his company and amongst his colleagues; new and old.

Vincent was no stranger to hard-work and to lending a helping hand to fellow colleagues and friends. In his free time, Vincent even enjoyed working on own vehicles and his neighbors. Vincent exhibit selflessness in the most simplest ways throughout his life. He gladly helped and fixed the cars of people in the neighborhood without cost. Vincent didn't believe in making profit off of helping those in need. Vincent not only used his skill to make a gracious and honest living but he used his skills to help those around him who weren't able.

Vincent is survived by his children: Shawn, Barrington, Marvin and Amar; grandchildren: Darian, Diamond, Amarion, Samiya, Braxton, Legend and London also survived by his brothers Hugh Brown, Keith Brown, Nevil Brown.

Vincent Augustus Brown was loved greatly and will be missed even more.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
