Eulogy by (Janese Blagrove)

On behalf of our family, I would like to begin by thanking everyone that is here today and for those who have sent their condolences. We have received countless phone calls, emails, texts, visits and thoughtful prayers. They have been comforting during this difficult time and have been a reminder of the great impact Deneisha (Denese) had on so many others.

My name is Joneisha or Janese as many know, I am Deneisha sis-in-law. It was hard writing this eulogy because this is hard to believe. I never imagined I would be here saying these words, I thought we would all grow old and reminisce on the good times.

Deneisha was born to Ionie Clarke and Herby George Blagrove March 30, 1985, in Kingston Jamaica a beautiful bouncing baby girl. Deneisha was the proud mom to Daniel and loving sister to Dean, Dave, and Dian. She migrated to the US at the age of 11. She attended John Adams and later attended TCI College to study paralegal, but Deneisha had an entrepreneurial spirit and ventured into her own cleaning business. She was very independent and a go-getter. When she puts her mind to something she wants to do it. She loved her family and being at family events was very important to her. I called her the family lawyer because you cannot say anything about her family. It was always family first. More than anything she loved her son, Daniel. Her son was her world. She was so proud of her brothers' achievements Dave and Dean. Dave buying our home and opening our store, Dean and his wife buying their home. She would post on Facebook and tell all her friends. She was her mother's keeper, and her sister's protector, always having their back. She loved her father and made sure he was always ok back home.

Let me try to put everyone, including myself, at ease here. She would not want us to be sad, nope not at all, she was fun, always had some good jokes, she was a small girl but a big personality and when she entered a room as many would say, her smile and energy commands attention. She would want to see us happy, smiling and having a good time.

So please let us honor, respect and remember a kindhearted family oriented and fun girl who touched all our lives in more ways than one. Denese I know wherever you are, the party there is a good one. Heaven just got a bit more exciting.

Fresh Pond Cemetery, Middle Village, New York

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free! -author unknown
