

*Song 151 - He Will Call
(Job 14:13-15)*

*1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.*

*2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.*

(Chorus)

Comforting Scriptures

I will help you.'"

The former things have passed away."

Obituary

Asbury Sebastian Bullock, Jr., was born on October 5, 1934 to Bernice Hamilton and Asbury S. Bullock in Brevard County, Florida. He grew up in Passaic, New Jersey, and was affectionately known as “Hamp.” After recent months of declining health, Hamp died peacefully at home on Tuesday, October 12, 2021 at the age of 87.

He was very athletic in his younger days and spent many days in the gym. He married the love of his life Edna on February 1, 1953. They enjoyed 49 years of marriage before she succumbed to illness in 2002. He prided himself on taking care of his family, which he did well. Asbury loved his children: Darlene Omer (deceased stepdaughter), Asbury Glenn Bullock (deceased son) and Laverne Bullock. Asbury showed special fondness for his grandchildren Darlene White (husband Paul), Corey Bullock (wife Kim), and LaTia Bullock. They will miss his ornery but sweet self. He is survived by his sister Marie “Ann” Bullock of Paterson, NJ. His brother Paul Bullock and sister Sylvia Bullock preceded Asbury in death. Many extended family members and friends will miss Asbury.

As one of Jehovah’s Witnesses, Asbury happily shared his faith and knowledge of the Bible with others. He often talked about the scriptures that gave him hope for a paradise earth, without suffering and death. The family now reflects on and derives much comfort from such scriptures as Revelation 21:4, which assures us that death, sorrow and pain will be no more...in God’s due time. Asbury was a kind and generous man. He was an excellent father and grandfather, always ready to help when needed. He might fuss about the help he provided, but everyone knew he did it out of love. We will miss him dearly, but look forward to the time when Jehovah God fulfills his promise to restore to life those in his memory.
