Obituary

Janice Hailstock, daughter of Frances Holmes and the late John Hailstock, was born on November 8, 1953 in Harlem Hospital. Janice grew up in Harlem where she received her formal education in the New York Public School System. Janice was blessed with two beautiful sons, Tyrone Campbell and Alphonso Hailstock.

She went on to have a very successful working career with various places of employment from Equitable Life Insurance, BMW dealership, to Human Resource Administration where she retired in November of 2019.

Janice professed her faith in Jesus Christ and joined a church in her community where she was a dedicated member. Helping out not only in her community was a complete joy for her.

Janice was a loving and caring mother, a proud grandmother and generous person. As a result of her generous spirit and pleasant personality she was adored by her grandchildren and by all who knew her. Janice had a smile that would light up any room. A recognized “Fashionista” among her peers, she was one to call for ideas on how to dress for any event. She took great pride in looking and being her very best. She enjoyed traveling, having a good time with friends and family, and she loved to hit the dance floor. It was an absolute joy to know Janice, and she will be immensely missed by all.

Janice Hailstock is preceded in death by her father, John Hailstock; brothers, Dennis, Curtis and Jerome Hailstock; and her sister, Deborah.

Her beautiful life will be forever cherished in the lives of: her sons, Tyrone (Ladonda) Campbell and Alphonso (LaKesha Steedley) Hailstock; her four grandchildren, Tyesha Campbell, Latyha Campbell, Dr. Alquon Hailstock and Alphonso T. Hailstock; mother, Frances Holmes; siblings, Wanda (Gregory) Knotts, Denise (Wade) Cress, Michael, Darleen, Eric (Tisha) Hailstock, Derrick and Millicent (Mark) Watson, Larry and Sybil Hailstock; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; and her long-life friend, Stephanie Tucker.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
