Notice of Change of Address

Dear Family and Friends:

I want you to know that I moved. I received a call from God the Chief Architect who informed me that my new house is ready and that I could move immediately, I just didn't have time to give you notice.

You all know that I have been sending up my timber in my own way, packing up a little at a time, getting ready to go, but there were some minor things to do, some finishing touches on some timber that only the Chief Carpenter Jesus Christ could help me do. I also had to wait for Him to let me know when He had finished some of the little things that were too broad, too thick or not long enough.

Well, my new home is finished and it's such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful Pearly Gate, just off a serene celestial shore. Of course, the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday here, I have been told.

I have lived in several places before my new home was prepared and none of the others could compare. There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain and cares of the world to bear. No strife or discontent, there is only sweet serenity everywhere and I could go on exploring around my new home, but I have to get fitted for my wings.

Let me give you my new address, because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too:

Annie M. Mingledolph
12 Gates To The City Avenue
Godstown, Heaven 77777

Oh yes, let me tell you this, I don't have a telephone yet, but just call God. If you don't have His number, He's listed in the Good Book on every page, contact Him.

Obituary

Annie Mingledolph 92 of Elizabeth, NJ passed away peacefully on October 9, 2021. Annie grew up in Augusta, Georgia. Where she attended Augusta, GA Public Schools.

She was a devoted daughter to her mother and 11 siblings. During her youth she met and married David Crane and from this union they were blessed with a daughter Phyliss Crane West. They were later divorced. She then dedicated herself to her church and helping others. She had made a living by doing domestic work at the time.

Later she met the late Robert L. Mingledolph and they married. From their union they were blessed with a baby boy, Robert T. Mingledolph. Whom she was dedicated to upto her life's transitioning.

Annie relocated to New Jersey and was employed by Lermer Clothing Factory formerly located in Garwood, NJ until her retirement.

Along her journey, she became a faithful member of the New Hope Memorial Baptist Church, under the leadership of the late Reverend Cornelius Bartley, Sr. and current pastor Reverend Dr. Steffie Bartley, Sr., whom she was very fond of.

Mother Mingledolph was very proud to share that she was a faithful tithes payer and was able to participate in paying off mortgages under both leaderships. She was a diligent servant and helped build the ministry by serving on the Pastor's Aid Board, assisting with the Flea Market with her late sisters Mother Lena Boykin & Sister Lillie Mae Jackson as well as her late brother-in-law Trustee BJ Boykin. She also served on the Women's Ministry, and as Head Mother of the Mothers Board. She is one that served wherever she was needed.

One of her many enjoyments was traveling with her New Hope Family whom she loved very much, on their many trips.

Mother Mingledolph, was known for speaking her mind and stood firmly on what she believed. She was definitely "One of a Kind."

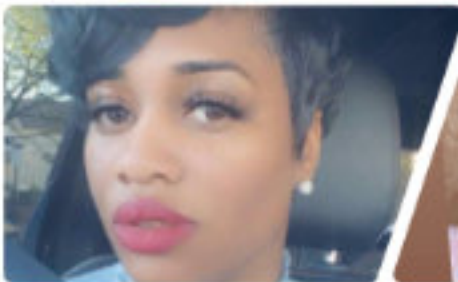

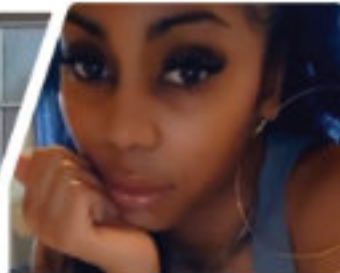

Mother, as she was affectionately called by her children, was a woman of prayer and understood the power and the benefits of constant prayer. She would often refer to her Lord and Savior as my "Sweet Jesus". She was a dedicated prayer warrior. Annie loved her family very much, holding them up in prayer; and was willing to help anyone she could. One of her favorite scriptures was Psalm 20, which she held onto all the way up to her passing.

Annie Mingledolph was predeceased by her parents, Walden S. and Annie L. Bennett, her daughter Phyliss Crane West, her brothers Henry, Timothy, Judson and Josh; her sisters, Sallie Mae, Mary Francis, Lillie Mae, Priscilla, Lula Bell and Lena.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, a son, Robert T. Mingledolph (Letitia) grandsons Jarred, Jacob, Joshua, Jorden and granddaughter Tamika Rivera (Andre), from her daughter the late Phyliss Crane West, grandchildren Katherine West-Aaron (Bryant), Karen West (Lord), Thomas West Jr. (Vanessa), Tammy West, Michael West (Tamika), Jamila West, Jermaine (Camille), Deon Crane, Renee Crane (Jeremy). 24 Great Grandchildren and 11 Great Great Grandchildren and a sister Mother Ella P. Downs, God Children Debra Shipman, Daniel Jones and April Byron, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Precious

Memoirs

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
