Obituary

Our dear Zenobia Lovick was born on April 15, 1946, to the late Nathan and Mary Burrus Lovick in Scranton, North Carolina. During her adolescence, she was educated in Hyde County and graduated from OA Peay High School. There is where she held the titles of “senior class secretary and best dancer” in Swan Quarter. Zenobia had a passion for singing and took lessons throughout her teenage years. Her favorite artists were Marvin Gaye and Aretha Franklin.

Zenobia, being the independent spirit that she was, took a leap of faith and moved to Newark, NJ in pursuit of a rewarding career. She held many positions of leadership but retired from Montclair State University, completing a 25 year tenure as an Admissions Advisor in 2013.

Affectionately known as “Aunt Z” by her nieces and nephews, she hosted countless family gatherings filled with laughter and love. Christmas being her favorite holiday, we would enjoy delicious dinners, especially her baked macaroni and cheese.

If you knew our beloved Zenobia, then you would know that she was a woman of style and class, a detailed home-maker, a trusted family member and most loyal friend. But her most important role was motherhood. Nothing could compare to the strength, love and adoration that she carried for her only son Jeffrey. Everything that she gave in this life, was for him to have the very best.

Zenobia transitioned into eternal rest on October 08, 2021. Preceded in death by parents Nathan, Sr. and Mary Lovick, brothers Nathan Jr. and Andrew Lovick, sisters Ella Web and Edna Chance.

She leaves to cherish her memory, son Jeffrey Lovick, two grandsons-Jamil Lovick and Javion Lovick. Surviving brother Calvin Lovick (Cassandra Lovick) Inglewood, CA, 4 surviving sisters Martha Mackey (William Mackey) Greenville, NC, Dollie Somers (Alfred Somers) Union, NJ Evangelist Lucy Covil (Apostle Charles Covil) Greenville, NC Edith Lynn, (Will Lynn) Union City, GA. A host of nieces, nephews, relatives, immediate and extended family including friends near and far.

“Let the angels rejoice and sing her name, Zenobia’s here...she earned her wings”
