Obituary

Edward Walter Hartwell was born on March 25th, 1927, in Charleston South Carolina to Edward Hartwell and Gertrude Mungin. Edward was an only child. He was educated in the local schools of Charleston and attended Burke High School.

At the age of 18, he enlisted into the United States Army. He then later married Louise Rose Cooper (deceased). They were married 52 wonderful years. Edward and Louise had two children, Lamont and Peggy Ann. They eventually moved to New York City in 1950, where Edward was employed by the Brooklyn Naval Yard for 18 years and devoted 25 years with the New York Transit Authority until he retired at age of 65. After retiring Edward relocated back to his hometown, in Charleston South Carolina for the remainder of his years.

Cherishing his loving memories are: his son, Lamont Hartwell (Robina), daughter Peggy Ann Hartwell. Two grandchildren, April Louise Hartwell, Edward L. Hartwell (Kahlina). Great grandchildren, Ruby Renee Stewart, and Jasmine Malik. Great great grandchildren, Jonathan and Christopher Malik, Kayla Karon, and Kaliah Randall. Also leaves to mourn cousins, Frank Williams, Kathlene Rivers, Denise Washington, Darlene Washington, Carmen Gaston, Walter Brooks, and Ronald Goodman.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of
Me to be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when the day is done
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways
Oh happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days
I'd like the tears of those
Who grieve, to dry before
The sun of happy memories that I leave behind when
The day is done
