

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we THANK YOU, whatever the part.

Dwight (Louie) Ferguson was born on September 12, 1962, to Helen Ferguson and the late Townsend Ferguson. Louie and his brother Darrell were raised by his paternal grandmother Ms. Maddie Ferguson. While growing up the boys were inseparable. Dwight attended elementary and middle school in Queens, NY. Andrew Jackson High School where he obtained his general education degree. Louie worked a variety of summer jobs in his youth that exposed him to people from all walks of life. He was also an avid basketball player. After graduating high school Louie was paralyzed from the waist down due to being caught in the crossfire of a shootout. Through this adversity Dwight never gave up his fighting spirit and encouraged others to persevere through hardship.

While hanging out in southside Jamaica Queens Louie met Ms. Shari (Tasha) Kelly and fell in love. Louie and Tasha fell hard and fast for one another They married June 6, 1997, at the justice of the peace in Queens, NY. Louie pushed Tasha to further her education despite not pursuing those opportunities for himself. While they had a tumultuous love affair Louie and Tasha eventually ended the union. They were divorced after over a decade together. Despite ending the marriage, they remained cordial with each other.

Dwight Ferguson despite his disability lived a full life with a lot of love and laughter. He struggled with many challenges but always rise to the occasion. Louie was loved by all that encountered him because he was genuine. On October 8, 2021, Louie went on to glory to rest within Allah loving arms. Groovy Lou as he was sometimes referred will truly be missed, his smile, confidence and his loving nature shined through his spirit.

Louie was preceded in death by his father, Townsend Ferguson, grandmother, Maddie Ferguson and uncle, Sedatrius Ferguson.

Dwight leaves to cherish in his memory his mother, Helen Ferguson; brothers, Darrell Ferguson, Gamal Ferguson, and Bart Pippen; sisters and sister-in-law, Theza Ferguson, Diane Pippen and Rachel Anderson-Ferguson; aunts, Barbara Brown, Dorothy Holloway and Sedatrius Hill; uncles, Charles Ferguson, Odell Maynor and Leon Hill; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
