Life Reflections

Joan Solise was born on December 5, 1965 in Brooklyn, New York, daughter of Gladys Anne Price Oliver and Sam Solise. She received her early education in the New York Public School System. When she was 16 years old, her family moved to Roselle, New Jersey where she continued her education at Abraham Clark High School.

A loving and caring woman, she was employed as a Home Health Aide, Caregiver and Babysitter for many years.

Joan Solise departed this life on Saturday, October 2, 2021 in Newark, New Jersey at the age of 55. She was predeceased by her parents, Gladys Oliver and Sam Solise; a sister, Darlene Solise and 2 brothers, Ronald and Willie Oliver.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, 2 sons, Jerry Archibald and Shawn Colvin; a daughter, Shafonda Colvin; 5 sisters, Paula Olivo (Rolando), Augustina and Theresa Solise, Deborah Johnson (Bernard) and Wanda Teachey (Elder George); 2 brothers, Michael Solise and Daniel Oliver (Yvonne) and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

*Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow.
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because, I will remember you all
And look on with a smile.
Understand, in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.*

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

*We did not know the pain you had
Or hear your final sigh,
We only know your life was over
Without a last good-bye.
God knew you had to leave us
But you did not go alone,
For a part of each of us went with you
The night God took you home.
To some you will soon be forgotten
To others just a part of the past,
But to us who loved and lost you
Your memory will always last.
God gave us strength to face it
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.*
