

God's Garden

Submitted By: Tammylee

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Neville Anthony Gayle Sr. was born in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica on March 23, 1950, to parents Enos and Daphne Gayle.

Neville attended Clarendon College where he played for the football team, and there, his love for soccer grew even more. He earned not just title of Captain of the Football team, but the nickname "Sprangy" which affectionately described his dexterity on the football field.

After graduation from Clarendon College Neville worked at Barclays Bank then Workers Bank where he would achieve the title of Accountant/Assistant Manager.

Neville migrated to the United States in 1978 and there he worked briefly with Interstate Bank before leaving them for Alps Manor Nursing Home. During his time at Alps Manor Nursing Home he began working for Verizon and spent 32 years until his retirement in 2010, working his way from Entry-Level Clerk to Communications Network Technician.

Neville enjoyed learning languages and spoke Spanish fluently. Along with his love of languages his other hobbies were playing soccer, exercising, dancing and martial arts, specializing in Judo and Tae Kwon Do. Neville was a fashion genius, and although he could not cook, he was also a pro when it came to eating. He was kind, loving, and compassionate, with the most infectious smile often followed by a boisterous laughter and never-ending jokes.

Neville is preceded in death by his parents, Father-Enos Gayle and Mother-Daphne Gayle, Sister Norma Scott, Brother Dr. Vinton Gayle, First born son Neville Anthony Gayle Jr., Nephew Gregory Owens Gayle, Sister-in-law Lorna Gayle.
