Obituary

Emil Orlando Temple, a 20-year-old Bronx native, was born on November 9, 2000 to his parents Marisol Solis & Orlando Temple. He has many siblings from his dad's side and a brother, Lenny, from his mom's side. At 8 years old Emil moved to Long Island with his mother along with stepfather, Fabio Munoz, where they started a new life. He gained 2 brothers and a sister – Chico, Fabiola & Luis, along with new family. He became an uncle a few years later, having a niece and 3 nephews he adored so much- Jordyn, Jackson, Jace & Jameson. Many people in Long Beach helped with his upbringing and those people were the ones he called his Family.

Emil attended a Catholic elementary school in the Bronx before moving to Long Island. He attended Long Beach Middle School and then Long Beach High School before transferring to Baldwin Highschool where he graduated from with a High School Diploma. During his teen years Emil was a well-rounded athlete, playing for the Long Beach Wrestling, Baseball and Football team. He was a diehard Yankee fan who loved to play baseball and watch all types of sports. After high school he attended SUNY Sullivan for a year and transferred to University of Albany with a major in Communications and minor in business.

In college, Emil was a proud leader of a fraternity that he was ready to cross this upcoming year. He excelled in all his courses. If he wasn't studying, he was working at Foot Locker getting the most sales. Before heading home, he will always stop by his Tia Maritza in Schenectady to eat at his favorite home cooked meals. His Tia Maritza was more than happy to regain the relationship that they once had when he was a child. He will always be a part of Tia Maritza's Family. Emil's plans after college were to work for Apple or Nike, while living in Los Angeles. This was one of his bigger dreams. His favorite phrase was the Kobe Bryant phrase "Be legendary", Something that Emil did and will forever be.

Tio Freddie: "I will remember Emil like a good son not a nephew."

Grandma: "I'm 100% sure that he is in heaven, watching over us. I love all my grandchildren, but he had something special."

Maritza (Freddie wife's): "He left a hole in all of our hearts. We weren't ready for his departure. God made his plan and now he is resting in heaven."

Marisol (Mom): "He was the apple in my eye since the womb. He inspired me to finish school. He would always be my heart."

Eleny: "Emil's smile will always be in my heart. As a person who saw it the most, for just being goofy around each other. As his little sister/Cousin I will forever remember him as a Big brother, mentor and my Alifer."

Fabiola: "My little brother will forever be loved and missed. I will make sure his niece and nephews forever remember their amazing uncle who would've given them the world!"

Chico: "My baby bro, my junebug, I am hurt beyond belief. He was one of my best friends and I will always be my brother's keeper!"

On October 12, 2021 Emil Orlando Temple's soul left this world and is now in Heaven. Emil's Legacy will live on in all of our hearts and memories as the compassionate, charismatic person he was towards his family and friends and that of the person who's smile lightened up any room he walked into. Rest in Paradise King Emil!

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
