Obituary

Harold David Madison, Sr. was born to the late Louis A. Madison Sr. and Viola Madison on May 14, 1941. He departed this earthly life on Friday, October 1, 2021.

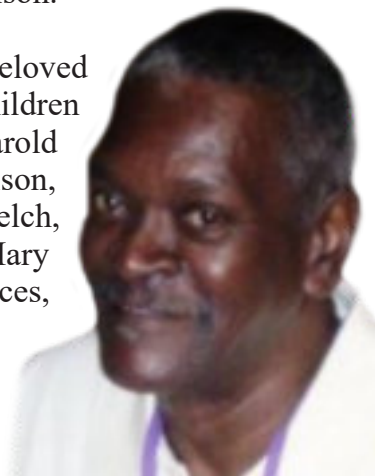

Harold was born and raised in Harlem, New York, he attended and graduated from the NYC public school system. In 1965 Harold was introduced to the love of his life. Marion Jenkins.

Harold & Marion dated for two years before getting married on October 15, 1967. A year later they welcomed the first of four children. As a young couple Harold and Marion raised their family in the Bronx. After having twin boys they purchased a house and moved the family from Tracey Towers in the Bronx to Orange, NJ. Harold was employed at Con Edison as a Mechanic from 1973 to 2004. After 31 years of work he retired from Con Edison

On July 14, 1992 Harold became a Freemason by joining the Mount Hermon Lodge #210.

Harold is preceded in death by his parents, and siblings, Louis Madison Jr., Katherine Miller, Wilhelmina Brown, Dorothy Madison, Elaine Madison, and Calvin Madison.

Harold leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife of 54 years Marion K. Madison, his children Sherrell Welch, Sherron Madison-Jones, Harold David Madison Jr., Herbert Dwayne Madison, grandchildren, Chanel Welch, Chanaya Welch, Savannah Jones, Brandon Jones, cousins, Mary & Eugene (Jack) Edwards, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and in-laws.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm Free.
I'm following the path God Laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him Call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things i too shall miss.
Be noted burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a Loved ones touch.
Perhaps my life seemed all to brief:
Don't lengthen it now
With undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
