Obituary

April Rochester, a beloved daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, and friend, was sadly removed from our lives, as she unexpectedly passed away at the age of 18 on October 6, 2021.

To know April was to be blessed to experience the most energetic, free-spirited, and magnetic energy in this universe. April had charisma about her that drew many people in. The limited time she walked on this Earth was enough to encourage and influence all who crossed her path. She could have been classified as picky sometimes, but it's just that April was very particular about the way she behaved and interacted with her environment.

The legacy she left behind is unprecedented. To be so young, and so influential is a momentous achievement in and of itself. She was a butterfly, not afraid to spread her wings. We were all so fortunate to see her beauty and grace in action.

April is survived by: her mother, Shereen Jackson; sisters, Shanice, Mia, Teresa, MoNae, MoSae, and Legacy; brothers, Marquise and Prince; nephew, Pookah; niece, Ulani; her sweetheart, Patrick; and a multitude of cousins, aunts, and uncles; as well as extended family and friends.

The words she lived by are the words that should inspire us every moment: "Never allow someone's definition of you to define you."
