Obituary

Damon Sanbula was called home on Sunday, October 17, 2021 at Albert Einstein Hospital surrounded by family.

Damon was born in the Bronx on January 19, 1972 and was the youngest child of 2 siblings. He is survived by his mother Paula Sanbula, his sister Kimberly Leak, his niece Kimberly Christine Leak, his aunt Rosalia Sanbula, and his 2 uncles Paulicarlo Sanbula and Domingo Sanbula, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Damon was a lover of life and he lived his life to the fullest, he also loved working as a coach for Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club. Damon touched the lives of the youth he worked with and they touched his life and heart as well, Damon loved them like they were his own. Damon loved his family and had a special bond with his mother, he also loved his cousin Frank dearly. Damon was all about family and he made sure to keep his family united and together by making sure we attended all family events and functions.

The family would like to give a special thank you to his cousins Frank Taylor, Nancy and Prensilia Jinks for all of their hard work and dedication with assisting with his services we are grateful for you.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
