Obituary

Dennis Williams was born July 9, 1957 to the late Dorothy and Willie C. Stoklin. Dennis was the youngest of four children. His Oldest Sister Ethel Williams, Colleen Williams (Deceased), and Dwight Williams (Deceased), also shared the lessons and values that his parents provided growing up together in Newark, N.J.

While attending the public school system of Newark, N.J. In 1976, Dennis graduated East Side High School as a Football and Basketball hero. His athletics landed a scholarship that allowed him the opportunity and confirmed decision to attend Jersey City State University College. His concentration of studies within the university were Political Science/Public Speaking. After completing his college legacy, sportsmanship participations and influences, Dennis became a Commercial Truck Driver for a host of corporations, allowing him to travel regionally and gain credentials within the logistics of Commercial Driving.

Mr.Williams was an active member in the church of Christ professing the Lord Jesus Christ as his savoir and spiritual worthy. He often sang the lead role in the Men's and Adult choir of his church, played an important role within the Dance Praise team, often attended Bible Study, and other teaching seminars of biblical lectionary discussion. As a Member of Saint Mark's A.M.E. Dennis married his long-time love interest Patricia A. Whitten-Williams, August 2002.

He is survived by his three children-Tawana Newton, Crystal Williams, and Dennis Richardson. Stepchildren-Rasheima Johnson, Sahib Johnson (deceased), and Atiya Whitten. Together, Dennis and his Wife Patricia shared 12 grandchildren, 1 great grandchild, a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

After Retiring as a Commercial Truck Driver, Dennis worked as a Diagnostic application assembler, facility maintenance manager, and Shipping and Receiving clerk. Dennis was called home October 16, 2021 at the age of 64 years old. His motto in life was "Work hard, Pray, Achieve, Believe, Play Harder"

WE REMEMBER THEM BY: SYLVAN KAMENS & RABBI JACK RIEMER

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer: We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.

> At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.

> When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.

For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, We remember them.
