Obituary

Lula (Cynthia) Wright-Ladson was born on November 19, 1956, in Charleston, South Carolina to her mother, Annabelle Brown-Wright and raised by her grandmother, Jane Green (Mama).

Lula moved to New York City when she was 16 years old, in which she had the opportunity of living with her mother Anabelle who relocated to New York years prior to Lula's arrival. During this period, she finished her high school education and began working on a career for herself.

At the age of 18 years old, Lula met Henry Ladson and they married on January 28, 1976, as followed the newlyweds welcomed their first-born child on August 5, 1977 (Rasheed Ladson). Lula was a wonderful mother she was educated and was a spiritual being. She also was a hard worker with the Board of Education and New York City Municipalities for decades.

She loved to cook and feed everyone in the neighborhood and always had time to talk and listen to her family and friends. She served as a bonus mom to most people, a daughter to a few and a loyal friend. She was known as "Mama Lu" and always gave genuine unconditional love. Some of her passions were knitting and sewing, astrology, curating art pieces, attending her art exhibits at the Westside Art Coalition (WSAC), and gardening which she held the title of the President of the community garden. She also was a community activist, frequently campaigning for tents rights in her building and occasionally outside her community.

Most of all she loved her family and instilled in her children strong values that have served them well. She will be dearly missed and forever in our hearts.

Lula is cherished by: her six siblings, Dorthey (Dot) Wright-Worrelle, Robert (Lee) Wright, Thomasina (Queen) Wright-Blake, Louis Parker Wright, Samson Wright and Charles (Hogan)Wright; her three sons, Rasheed Ladson, Najee Ladson and Ahmad Ladson; only daughter, Ahsaki Ladson; her five grandchildren; her many nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. All of these she loved and touched deeply.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
