Obituary

Adelle George was born on August 5, 1958 to mother, Mildred George. She had four siblings, Dorene Washington, Alfred George, Annette George and Lawrence George; two children, Brandon Ky'el George and Brielle Ki'ja George; nephews and nieces, Dorian (Morey), Carter (Marvis), Ronald, Darrell, Travis, Nadia, and Kyla; and a host of family and friends.

Adelle attended Elementary School PS 194, Central Commercial High School; and she graduated with her AA from BMCC and her BA from Fordham University. Adelle was known as a star student. She excelled in school. In fact, she won the city wide Spelling Bee when she was younger and her picture made the daily news.

Adelle started in an advertising agency as a head executive. She retired in 2014 from working in a medical office as a office manager. She also loved working the election voting polls until she couldn't do it anymore.

Adelle was always on the go moving like she had an appointment for every time in the day. She loved to be the life of the party. She loved to hang from the chandelier as she would put it. She loved her pocketbooks; she loved to read books; loved her shows on Netflix, Criminal Minds; and she loved to eat seafood, crabs legs and mussels. Pickles and ice cream were also her favorites. She loved to just be left alone, living her life the way she wanted to. She was a sassy fast talking woman. Adelle had the spirit and the will of a warrior that will live in each and every one of us forever.

FAMILY TREE

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, 'Grieve not for me'
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs

The good I lived while I was strong
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all...how I was truly blessed

Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall

I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.
