Obituary

William Webster Miller, Jr. was born in New York City on October 1, 1934 to the parents Richie Green Miller and William Webster Miller the first.

He was raised in Harlem and attended George Washington High School. He attended Lincoln University in Pennsylvania. There he became a member of Phi Beta Sigma Inc. After Lincoln University, he attended Atlanta University School of Social Work. There he met his wife, Flora Miller. They were married for 56 years. They had two sons, Billie and Clinton. The family settled in Crown Heights and later in downtown Brooklyn. He devoted his vocational life as a Social Worker working for The Division for Youth (now Office of Children and Family Services.) For 32 years he helped to support adjudicated youth.

Throughout his life he attended various churches including Abyssinian Baptist Church in Harlem and Church of the Master also in Harlem. In Brooklyn, he attended Bedford Central Presbyterian Church, Grace Reform Church and Brown Memorial Baptist Church.

While at Grace Reform, he was instrumental in starting a basketball program that touched the lives of many youth throughout Brooklyn.

William Miller was both serious and fun loving. He loved playing sports and he especially loved watching basketball and boxing. He was known to crave ice cream, pies and cakes.

He is survived by his two sons, his two grand daughters, Asha and Charlette, including many cousins, nieces and nephews in Washington, D.C., Alexandria, VA, Pittsburg, PA, Buffalo, N.Y., and Cincinnati, OH.

We will miss him as his presence will always be with us in spirit.

Livingly submitted, The Family

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it.

"LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day, God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide.

And although we cannot see you, You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.
