A Life Remembered

Michelle P. Kimble was born on May 19, 1954 in New York City, to the late Juanita Robles and John Kimble. Michelle who was also known to most as Kimble was raised and educated in Harlem, New York. She obtained her college degree at John Jay College and worked various jobs before she landed at the New York City Department of Corrections, where she dedicated 25 years of service and eventually retired in July of 2015.

Michelle was a very unique woman with a beautiful smile. She had a love for traveling and experiencing new things. She was very caring and loving in her own way, especially about the ones she cherished close to her heart. Michelle was diagnosed with a serious illness in September 2021, and was called home on the 22nd of October.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Marcelo Cartagena III; one daughter-in-law, Ebony Cartagena; one brother, Robert; three sisters, Denise, Vanessa and Antoinnette; five grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
