Obituary

Susie Hale, also known as “Mama Hunts” or “Bella”, passed away at the age of 103 on October 28, 2021.

Susie was born on July 17, 1918 in Harlem, New York to the late Lillian and George Brandon. She was their only child. She attended NYC Public Schools before going to work during the Great Depression at a very young age to help their family make ends meet.

Susie met and married Emory Hale in 1949 and remained married for over 50 years until his death in 1995. Together they raised two boys, Bobby and Emory Jr. who both preceded her in death.

Susie lived in Harlem half of her life before moving to Park Slope, Brooklyn where she resided for nearly 50 years. Her final place of residence was in the Bronx, NY.

Susie was always a hard working woman. She worked as a seamstress for nearly 20 years before landing a job working for Catholic Charities as an Office Coordinator. She retired from Catholic Charities in 1995.

Susie was vibrant, strong willed, and determined to live life to the fullest. She was fearless, feisty and resilient even as she approached 100 years of age. Susie loved traveling the world and meeting new people; in particular she loved vacationing on cruise ships, she even traveled until she was 94 years old. She lived life on her terms. She was a strong advocate of education and hard work. She will be greatly missed but today we celebrate her long life with jubilation. Her memory and her spirited appetite for life continues to live within all of us.

Susie is survived by: her grandchildren, Shirley Brown, Crystal Hale, George Thompson, Michael Hale, Joann Kelly, Kevin Hale and Carlton Hale; daughter-in-law, Bertha Thompson; grandson-in-law, Mark Kelly; and a host of family and friends.

When someone you love becomes a memory
the memory becomes a treasure.
With Heartfelt Sympathy

Love Lives On

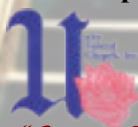

Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on .and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.

Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory they'll live on in the heart.
