Obituary

Michael Sylvester Hennegan was born on January 18th, 1958, to the union of Violet and Charles Hennegan in Lenox Hill Hospital, Manhattan, New York. He spent his early childhood in Manhattan before moving to the Bronx where he received his formal Catholic education at St. Philip & James, St. Helena's High School for Boys, and Iona College respectively.

During Michael's early adult life, he worked at an A&S department store, where he met his soon to be wife. His love for trains then led him to the MTA, where he worked for 19 years.

Michael, a man of many talents, had a considerable lifelong hobby for model trains. His latest and greatest creation was surely a testament towards his deep devotion to the craft.

Michael left us on October 28th, 2021, surrounded by family after a long battle with cancer. He was preceded in death by his daughter Elizabeth, his father and mother.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife Marcia, two children, Korey, and Kayla, three sisters, Dorothy, Brenda, and Sylvia, two brothers, Maurice and Donald, nieces and nephews, and a host of other family and friends.

Precious Memories
