

Celebrating the life of our dear

Alma White

August 4, 1929 - November 5, 2021

Obituary

Alma White of The Bronx, New York, peacefully passed away on Friday, November 5, 2021. Alma was born on August 4, 1929 to the late Deacon Willis White and Mother Geraldine White. Alma was the oldest of ten siblings to the Whites. She was born in Norfolk, Virginia, where she lived for a few years until her parents and siblings moved to New York City. She graduated from Washington Irving High School and later went to nursing school and received her R.N. Soon after, she moved on to Saint Francis College in Brooklyn, New York where she received her degree of Bachelors of Science.

Alma then began to work for Gold Water Hospital where there she quickly was promoted from a R.N to Supervisor. She stayed in that position until she retired. Her home church, which she so enjoyed fellowshiping with, was Christ Temple Church where the pastor is Bishop James I. Clark and Mother Lorraine Clark. Alma was very crafty and enjoyed making many items that included making soap, dolls, jewelry, quilts, and anything she could get her hands on to show her gift of creativity.

Alma really enjoyed life and loved to humbly serve people at any time, but especially in their time of need. After a long battle with illness, she left us to be with the Lord. She will be missed, but we are glad that she found peace.

Alma leaves to cherish her memory: one brother, Joseph White; one sister, Ruth White; many nieces, nephews, family, and church family and friends who will miss her dearly.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
