Obituary

Diah Monique Adams was born February 19, 1971, in Queens, New York. Her parents were Willie Ray Adams and the late Lisa Adams. In addition, her mother Lisa Adams and only brother Jamal Gregory proceeded her in death.

Diah better known as "Monique", was the oldest daughter and granddaughter. Monique always played mommy role to all her sisters, brother and cousins. Monique's smile and personality would brighten up the room. Those who met her fell in love with her. Monique received her education in the New York City school system. In 1996, Monique gave birth to her one and only son, Malik Belgrave. Monique met and married her longtime sweetheart Collin John in 2011.

Monique was a member of Rugged Cross Church of God where she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She served as an Usher and oversaw the young people of the church. Monique was always active and involved in any church activities especially with the younger people. Monique had a passion for cooking, especially for the holidays. Monique loved cooking so much she became a cook for NYC Department of Education. When Monique wasn't at work cooking, she found a way to cook for family and friends. She will be missed for her charisma, her smile and her hard work and dedication.

Rest Safely In His Care
There are many things in life
That we do not understand
But we must trust God's judgment
And be guided by His hand,
And all who have God's blessing
Can rest safely in His care,
For he promises safe passage
On the wings of faith and prayer.

Heknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
