Obituary

Ruby M. Williams was born on October 14th, 1933 to the late Mrs. Rebecca Charleton Collins and Mr. Lincoln Collins in Savannah, Georgia. She was the youngest of 2 other siblings.

In 1948 Ruby met Mr. Walter Williams and after a brief, wonderful courtship, they were married on September 28th, 1950. Through this union they had 6 children. They remained in Savannah, Georgia until 1954 when they decided to move to New York City where they remained until her death on Sunday, November 7th, 2021.

After their move to New York City, Ruby worked various jobs to make ends meet, but in 1966, she found employment with the United States Post Office as a Mail Handler. She worked her way up the ladder and became a Supervisor at Morgan Post Office where she remained until her retirement in 1996.

Ruby enjoyed traveling with her husband Walter after they retired, playing cards, and having all the family over for Sunday dinners. Her other favorite past-time at home was watching her 3 soap operas, All my Children, The Young and the Restless, and the Bold and the Beautiful while eating a bowl of vanilla and chocolate Baskin and Robbins ice cream. Everyone knew not to call or bother her between the hours of 12 to 3.

Ruby Williams leaves to mourn her five children, Shirley Segarra, Walter Williams Jr., Cynthia Williams, Anthony Williams and LaVerne Hickman. One daughter Dorothy Hopkins preceded her in death, 10 grandchildren, 8 great grandchildren, one sister-in-law, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and a host of friends.

Ruby we love you and you will truly be missed by all.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
