Obituary

The Lord called his Angel home on November 7, 2021 for her Eternal Reward.

Edna Mae Devone was born June 22, 1943 to the late Coleman and Mary L. Devone in Mullins, South Carolina. Affectionately known as "Red" being born with red hair. She would light up the room every time she entered.

At an early age Edna was taught how to pray and have the understanding of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. With this knowledge she gave her life to the Lord and continue this teaching throughout her life journey.

In the years to follow, the family relocated to Mullins, South Carolina from Whiteville, North Carolina for a new beginning. During her years in Whiteville, North Carolina. Edna attended the Mount Olive School System. This is where she met the love of her life Ralph E. Frink Sr. Edna would often say how Ralph would walk a few miles to her home just to "court" her.

In 1963 Ralph and Edna were united in Holy Matrimony. To this union, they had six children. Ralph Eugene Frink Jr., Onzar Andrew Frink, Terrence Noel Frink, Melisa Ann Frink(Gant), Jerome "GB" Frink, Micheal Emmanuel Frink. The love she had for her children nurtured them throughout life.

Often times the family would go to the drive-in movies and overload the car with laughter and lots of love.

Edna began her first job as a press operator at a local Jersey City laundry cleaning service. She later was employed at Hudson Manor Nursing Home in Union City, NJ as a home health aide, And highly sought after to care for others. Edna had a sincere heart of compassion towards everyone. As time went on Edna was a assembly line worker for 30 years at General Motors until her retirement. But she stayed busy volunteering at new Millennium daycare Jersey City, NJ.

Edna passions includes crocheting. She would often say it would relax her. She also loved gardening and taking long walks. When at home she listened to her favorite gospel artist Shirley Caesar.

Edna was a phenomenal cook. Everyone came from near and far for her delicious and amazing meals, Such as: cabbage, collard greens, potato salad and let's not forget her famous chocolate cake and banana pudding.

Edna was a faithful member of Cornerstone Church of Christ as a servant of her Lord and Savior. She also served as a member on the usher board.

Throughout Edna's life she welcomed everyone near and dear. Her wisdom, intellect and heartfelt sincerity made everyone comfortable. However, if you need "tough love" she would often share it, by not sugar coating her words of wisdom in love.

Edna is proceed in death by her Spouse Ralph E. Frink Sr., Mother Mary Lee Devone, Father Coleman Devone, Son Jerome "GB" Frink, Brothers Otha, James Richard, Foster, David, Sisters Mary Grace Graves, Annie Lou Haynes Brothers-in-Law Bobby Haynes, DeLeon Graves, Sisters-in-Law Mary L.
