

She is Gone

*You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you cant see her,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, Or you can be happy for tomorrow
because of yesterday
You can remember her and only that she is gone.
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.
Or you can do what Mum would have wanted:
Smile, Open your Eyes, Love and Go On.*

Words of Love and Reflection from Lena's Siblings:

Marc Saint-Hubert

"Lena was a good person. When you had a problem, no matter who it was, it was like she was the one going through it. She tried her best to resolve the problem."

Techzel St. Hubert

"Lena was very sensitive. She was very interested in the needs of others. She was always ready to lend a helping hand. She was very generous."

Joel St. Hubert

"Loune was a sister that I loved a lot. We had a lot of love for one another. She was the prettiest woman in Plaisance."

Ledenie St. Hubert

"The way Loune took care of me, I feel as if it is my mother who passed away."

Kelly St. Hubert

"Loune I will always think of her....."

Lena St. Hubert was born in Plaisance Nord, Haiti on February 8, 1954. She was the daughter of Leonce St. Hubert and Anna Louise Official. She was the second eldest child in a family of six children: Marc, (Lena), Kelly, Joel, Ledenie, and Techzel. Lena grew up in the center of a religious family. For guidance, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior very early in life. She attended church services regularly. She always occupied diverse roles within her church and in academic settings. She held positions such as Choir Director, Scout Director, Camp Director, Lead Singer and Sunday School Teacher. One of her favorite hobbies was modeling, she adored it very much because she enjoyed dressing up beautifully and wearing high heeled shoes. She also enjoyed travelling to new places.

Lena also known as “Le”, by her beloved mother, “Le” or “Loune”, by friends and family, took her education very seriously. Lena completed her primary and secondary school education at L’ecole Evangelique Baptiste De Plaisance. She attended college in Cap Haitien, Haiti at College Pratique Du Nord (founded by Edith Robinson). In Port-Au-Prince she attended Jerome Laboratory where she studied to be a Medical Technologist.

While in Port-Au-Prince, Lena met Ricot Obas. They married in Port-Au-Prince and later formed a family together. In 1980, Lena moved to the United States and Ricot joined her shortly thereafter.

Lena went on to have two beautiful children Diana and Darnell.

She became a mother-in-law to Lawrence and a grandmother to Joshua, Noah, and Josiah; all of whom she loved very much.

Lena had great empathy for others and always found a way to offer aid to those in need. Her caring attitude and love for helping others propelled her into the healthcare field. She studied nursing and successfully became a Licensed Practical Nurse. Lena was also a natural entrepreneur. She enjoyed starting and being a part of various business ventures.

Lena had a great heart and was extremely loyal. She cherished her family. She loved and treated her friends as if they were family. She enjoyed spending time with the people that she loved. Lena left an empty hole in the hearts of many. She will be missed greatly.

Lena St. Hubert was preceded in death by her mother Anna Louise Official and her father Leonce St. Hubert.

She leaves to mourn her loss: Diana Harris (daughter), Darnell Nicolas (son), Lawrence A. Harris (son in law), Eliphete Official (Uncle), Lawrence J. Harris (grandson), Noah Harris (grandson), Josiah Harris (grandson), Marc Saint-Hubert (brother), Techzel St. Hubert (brother), Joel St. Hubert (brother), Ledenie St. Hubert (sister), Kelly St. Hubert (brother), and a host of nieces and nephews, family, and friends.
