Obituary

Adeline Maureen Bent was born on November 16, 1943 in the parish of Balaclava, St Elizabeth on the beautiful island of Jamaica where she was raised and received her schooling. She was the older of two daughters born within the union to the late Sylvester and Lydia Marshall.

She met, fell in love and married the late Noel Bent in Jamaica. That union produced three wonderful children, Lorna, Charmaine and Clive. After her husband's passing she migrated to the United States in late 1990's with the help of her beloved niece, Patricia Watson, and then the rest of her family joined her afterwards.

Throughout her life Adeline have worn many professional hats. She was a seamstress, businesswoman, restaurant clerk, home health aide and homemaker. She was an exemplary hard worker who put her heart in all that she set her mind to do.

Adeline was very hospitable and had the ability to light up a room with her contagious smile and on the flip side, when she had her mind made up on a matter only Jesus could change it. Still it was this kind of strong will that made her the faithful and resilient person she was. A woman of principle who loved the Lord and had a deep personal relationship with him. She accepted Jesus as her Lord and Saviour and was baptized at a young age while living in her homeland Jamaica. She was the pillar and the priest in her family. A prayer warrior who never fails to constantly bring her family before The Lord for His blessings and mercy to be upon them. We have seen many of those prayers being answered.

She has been a long standing and faithful member of Faith Temple where she has bonded and built a relationship with her brothers and sisters in Christ. One of her closest sisters in Christ was Sis Clemont.

Adeline loved to dress up and was always ready to strike a pose for the camera. She also really loved to cook for her family. Until the day she suddenly fell ill in the last two weeks of her life, she was the chef. When she's not cooking or baking a cake you can find her reading her bible or writing in her diary. She has touched many lives and will be sorely missed. She will always forever remain in our hearts as a precious mother, grandmother, sister, cousin, mother-in-law and friend.

To cherish her memory, Adeline leaves behind her children Lorna Bent, Charmaine Bent and Clive Bent. Her grandchildren Almonzo Rhoden, Jamar Gray and Kyle Bent. She also leaves behind her sister, Malgo Smith, half sisters Hazel Farquharson and Joyce Beswick, half brother Edgerton Beswick, nieces Patricia Watson and Doreen Jones, daughter-in-law, Arinathia Bent and a host of other relatives and friends.

Rest in peace, we love you!

Scripture Readings
Psalms 23: 1 -6 King James Version (KJV)

The Lord Is My Shepard 1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Scripture Readings
Revelation 21: 1-5 King James Version (KJV)

We Shall Be Made New

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. 2And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. 4And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. 5And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
