Her Story

Brittani Nicole Duffy “Nene”, 27 departed this life on November 18, 2021. She was born on April 26, 1994, a record-setting day announced the birth of a strikingly extraordinary woman the daughter of Kim Lawrence-Johnson and Charles Duffy.

At the age of 11, Brittani was a cheerleader and loved to dance. During her years at Life Sciences Secondary School, Brittani excelled in all of her subjects. After graduating high school in 2012, Brittani attended LaGuardia Community College where she studied Criminal Justice.

Her first job as a sales associate at TJ Maxx was more than a job it was an opportunity to prepare her with the social skills she possessed to interact with various people. Which prepared her for a career with NYPD and New York City Housing.

But her most rewarding accomplishment was on March 9, 2014 when she gave birth to her loving son, Ashton King Fredericks-Applewhite. Brittani was a devoted, nourishing and loving mother.

Brittani was known by her beautiful smile and loving spirit. Her main goal was making sure everyone was okay. Brittani’s interest in other people along with her unique and outgoing personality will be cherished.

Brittani is survived by: her mother, Kim Lawrence-Johnson (Dewayne Johnson); father, Charles Duffy (Dara McDonald); her son, Ashton King Fredericks-Applewhite; her siblings, China Johnson, Zoey Duffy, Kenzo Duffy and Kenji Duffy; her grandparents, Willie Lawrence (Gail Lawrence) and Minnie Lawrence, (preceded in death, Mary “Nanna” Duffy); godparents, Shavon Bolden, Michelle Jones, Shirley Harvey, Joann Hines, Micheal Jones and Reggie Star; and a host of aunts, uncles, several cousins and friends.

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

The Broken Chain

Little did we know that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

Words will never express the thanks we have in our heart for each and everyone who touched us with your love through your prayers, your presence, and your encouragement during our period of bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep each of you. - The Family of Brittani Nicole Duffy
