Obituary

On November 14, 2021 Charity Hargroves-Pitt slipped away peacefully into the arms of our Lord. Charity was affectionately known as “Peaches”, she loved her family. She enjoyed playing cards, going to Atlantic City, watching the Price is Right, and playing the Lottery. She also liked eating good food surrounded by her loving sisters.

Peaches was born to the late Harold and Helen Brantley on December 4, 1942 in Newark, NJ. She was the second of six children. Peaches was educated in her hometown of Newark, NJ. She attended South Side High School and graduated in 1961.

Peaches married the late Sherman Hargroves, Jr. from this union she was blessed with three children.

Peaches became ill with the grace of God and the help from Andrew (“Drew”) her true LOVE who she adored, led a joyful life, she never complained about her disabilities, she had a positive outlook on life.

She worked at Ivers Lee in Newark, NJ, the City of Newark under the Gibson Administration and the Essex County Courts where she retired from.

Peaches leaves to cherish her memories: one sister, Selena Shuler; two brothers, Donald Brantley, Herman Bennett; children; Stephanie Hargroves-Hardin (George), Jeffrey Hargroves; one god-daughter, Teresa Andrews; one grandson, Naseem Hargroves; one daughter-in-law, Sandra Hargroves; special daughter, Marcella Pleasant; special cousin, Lowlee; nieces; Romaine Graham, Sonia Whyte (Phillip), Jamillah Young, Renee Bennett-Hampton (Tyrone), Lysa Satterwhite; Nephews; Brian and Kyle Matthews and host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

Peaches was predeceased by her parents, Harold and Helen Brantley; her son Desmond Hargroves; two sisters, Barbara Matthews, Khalilah Abdul-Ghani; one brother, Harold Brantley, Jr.; three bother-in-laws; MacArthur Shuler, Amir Abdul-Ghani, Leon Matthews.

EXPRESSION OF LOVE AND REFLECTIONS

WILL BE GIVEN AT THE REPAST

"Lover's Prayer"

Lord, here I am alone; just you and I,
Now I have the chance to tell you.

How much I love and why.

You woke me up this morning, and really on time.

The moon had disappeared, and the sun had begun to shine,

All nature was in place,

all I had to do was to get up, and join the race.

I was happy to be in the race. From morning until night,

You held me by my hand, and you kept mind intact.

Now won't you watch over me, and keep me through the night,

As I slumber, sleep and dream,

please don't let evil appear on the scene.

Keep me forever humble before Thee.

Lord, I thank you for sharing your love with me.
