The Life of Prince Ralph Anthony Cohen, Jr.

Prince Ralph Anthony Cohen Jr. was born to Ralph Anthony, Sr., and Sirvella Ann Cohen on August 9th, 1983 at St. Michael's Hospital in Newark, New Jersey.

Anthony, as he was affectionately called, received his early education from Alexander Street and Vailsburg Middle Schools. He later continued his education and received his GED.

Anthony was the first- born grandchild of both his paternal and maternal grandparents. He brought so much joy to their lives, and they showered him with so much love and affection as did his uncles and aunts.

Anthony had a few things in life he was passionate about. One in particular was his love of food. He enjoyed dining out with his family at the All You Can Eat buffets. Anthony took those four words seriously. He was all in! He also enjoyed sports.

Anthony's favorite basketball team was the Chicago Bulls. His favorite football team was the Oakland Raiders. Anthony's desire was to someday witness his teams play live in their home cities.

Since he was a little boy, Anthony loved music. He made his musical debut with the kitchen pots and pans. He would later graduate to becoming a great drummer. He would exercise his skills early on in his youth at his Uncle's church (Cush Worship and Deliverance Temple). Anthony also enjoyed listening to the Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir.

Anthony was raised in a Godly home and taught of the Lord by his father and mother along with his brothers David and Matthew and sister Sabrina. Anthony had had a love for the Big Apple (New York City). He relocated to Staten Island where he resided until he succumbed to his illness on November 8th 2021 when Anthony departed this life.

He was predeceased by his infant sister Angel, his grandfather James Cross, grandmothers Rosemary Cross and Alice McCants, and his cousin Solomon Joshua Cohen. He leaves to mourn and await the coming of Jesus Christ, his father and mother, two brothers David and Matthew, his sister Sabrina, his two nephews Gabriel and Benjamin, his only niece Cayley, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The family.

Dear Ralph Jr.,
I thank the Lord for this day, for blessing me in every way, for living, laughing and loving you was fun.

The times we've shared:
me and my first-born son.

I miss the talks that we shared on the phone.

Always thinking of our family and how we have grown.

Ralph Jr., I love you son with all my heart, and I pray that I will see you again on that great day.

Ralph, I thank you Lord Fog for giving my son rest. We all loved you, but God loves you best.

Humblly submitted,
Your mother
