Obituary

MICHAEL LEE

Known by his friends as “Mike”, this reserved brother was born on January 27, 1953. He grew up in the Saint Nicholas Houses, and completed his early education at P.S. 154 and J.H.S 43. In 1971, he graduated from Charles Evans Hughes High School, and later earned a Technical Associates Degree in Computer Electronics from The City University Of New York. He retired from Savin Business Machines where he was employed as a Technical Support Specialist.

Though Mike was very private about much of his personal life, he was quite the opposite in sharing joy, laughter and good times with his friends. It may surprise some of his friends to know that Mike performed on the Apollo Theater stage and was also a ballboy at the U.S. Tennis Open in Queens.

After a brief residency in Brooklyn, Mike moved to the “Triangle Building” on West 57th Street. That was his world class upscale home until his passing on October 19, 2021. Not only will he be missed by his friends, but the scene in front of 237 and 255, where he made those legendary “3-No” Bid Whist calls, will likewise never be the same.

Rest In Peace, Brother Mike.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
