Obituary

From The Holy Koran MST of A- Chapter IV

“The calls of death are always for the best, for we are solving problems there as well as here; and one is bound to find himself where he can solve his problems best”.

RELIGION; ISLAM

FAITH – MOHAMMEDIAN

NATIONALITY – MOORISH AMERICAN

HOLY DAY – FRIDAY

Brother Henry W. Bey was born November 2, 1946; the third of ten born to Henry Williams Sr. and the late Virginia F. Williams, in Philadelphia, PA. Philadelphia where he met and legally married wife Jennette W. Bey, who united with him into the Moorish Science Temple of America in March 1975. Proclaiming his title and free national name of Bey and Moorish American proudly; following the ways of the Moorish merchant forefathers, he opened a company business, “Bey Enterprises” featuring Women and Children’s apparel, which he lost along with his legal marriage in 1984. He then journeyed to Newark, NJ where he met and knew true happiness with his love for Eisha Bey, of Newark who was called home in 2004.

Brother Henry W. Bey was known to find happiness in simple pleasures, a good home cooked meal, smooth peanut butter and a cold beer. The pleasure ended shortly after his 75th birthday on November 4th, 2021.

He was preceded in death by brothers, Fredrick Williams, Martin W. Bey, and sister, Lenora Taylor.

He leaves to remember and cherish his life, his father, Henry Williams Sr.; siblings, Mary W. Bey with husband Godfrey M. Bey, Allahambra M. Bey, Justina M. Bey with three grand nieces and nephew, Ronald Williams wife Mable, hosts of grand nieces and nephews, Lottie W. Bey with three surviving daughters and a host of nieces and nephews and their children, Leila W. Bey with two surviving sons with daughters, and Annette W. EL with three daughters, and five sons with children. A host of cousins and family members in Islam who will forever remember his spirit, smile, sincerity, loyalty, and acts of kindness. Brother Henry W. Bey you will be fondly remembered with joy of heart.
