

~~ To Our Loving Son ~~

It's sometimes hard to understand , why things happen as they do:

For so much JOY & HAPPINESS, was centered around you.

It seemed hard to comprehend, that you're no longer here,

But all the HAPPY MEMORIES, will help to keep you near.

You're thought about with pride,

Son, with each mention of your name

Your departure cannot change a single thing,

for the love will forever remain.

Love You To Forever ..... Mom

Of all the special gifts God gives,

however great or small,

For Him to give you as my son was the greatest gift of all,

A special time, a special face, a special son,

I can't replace,

And though there's aching in my heart

I whisper low.....

"I miss you, son, and love you so!"

In My Heart, Always, Dad

Obituary

CARLTON DINISIO VAILES, JR., (also affectionately known to all as 'CJ'), was born on July 2, 1974, in Paterson, NJ. He attended Paterson Public School #4, Eastside High School and Rosa Parks School of Performing Arts.

He was blessed with an amazing natural talent as a graphic artist, and enjoyed designing characters which he created on outerwear, such as jeans and jackets. He also knew his way around in a kitchen. He was, what could be determined as, a 'chef level' cook. One of his most tasty creations was his seafood pasta, which was ALWAYS a hit whenever it was presented.

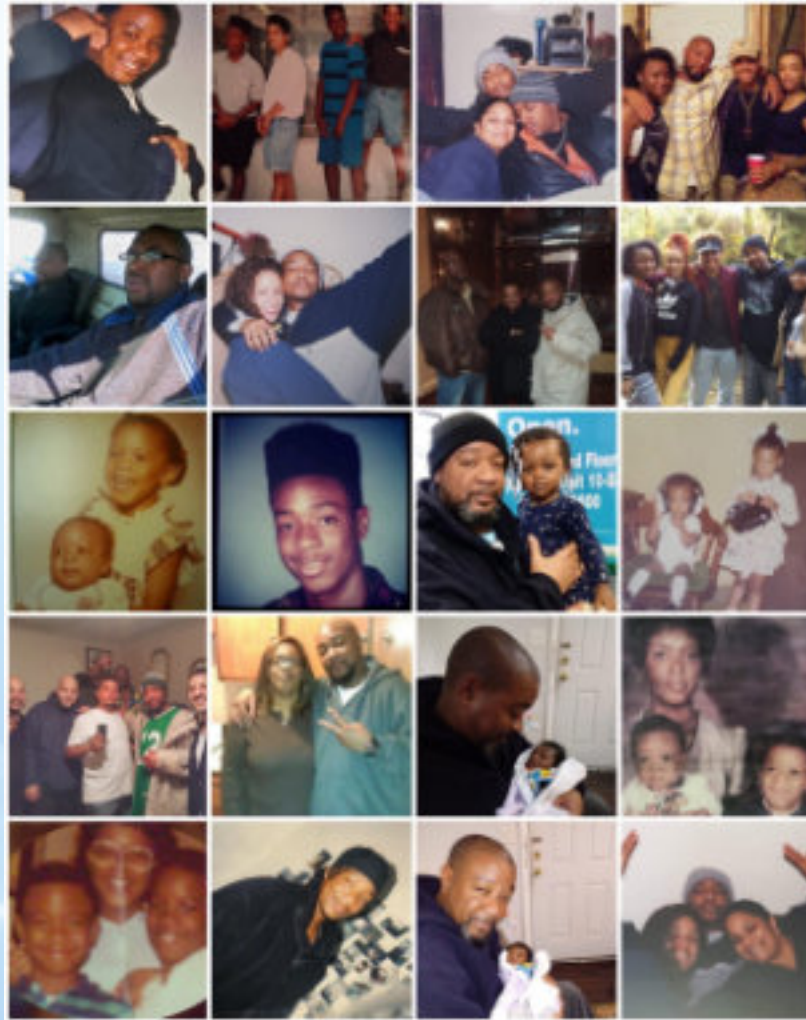

As the family would attest to, 'CJ' had a bit of a mischievous streak as a child, and he, along with his cousin, Kevin Stancil, often shared in getting into hot water. They would point fingers at each other for who was to blame for 'accidentally' activating a fire alarm, or for 'accidentally' locking his great-great Uncle Joe out of the house, whom he also jokingly referred to as an 'old geezer', but still respected.

In later years, 'CJ' became gainfully employed as a security guard in Passaic, NJ at Hope Academy, and later at Community Charter School, in Paterson, NJ. Along with his love for drawing and cooking, he was an avid, diehard NY JETS fan. Whether his team won or lost, his motto was 'I BLEED GREEN!!'

In his earlier years, 'CJ' along with his family, attended the Greater Bibleway Church of Christ, in Paterson, NJ, and later re-established his relationship with God, and became a member of the Rehoboth Church of Christ in Paterson, under the leadership of his 'Auntie-Pastor', Pastor Linda Stancil. There, he would serve with the Brotherhood Auxiliary.

He was a bit of a jokester, and loved a good laugh, but above all else, 'CJ' LOVED HIS FAMILY DEARLY!!

He departed this life, while at home, on Wednesday, November 22, 2021. He leaves to cherish precious memories, his mother, Brenda Vailes, of Paterson, NJ; father, Carlton D. Vailes, Sr. (Camay) of N. Carolina; sisters, Kimberly Walker (James) of Macon, GA and Carla Bracey (Tuanshai) of Hawthorne, NJ; 5 children: Amanda, Zah'nashia, Nashaun, Tatiana and Carmesha; 1 granddaughter, Alaiya Rose, 7 'aunties', 8 uncles, 1 niece, 3 nephews, and a host of loving cousins, relatives & life-long friends. He will also be lovingly remembered by Missionary Gwendolyn Prince (God-mother), and Mr. Ron Norwood.
