Obituary

Russell Leon Webster was born on December 16, 1961, in New York City, New York, to parents, Richard and Eugenia Webster.

Russell was educated in the Public School system. He was employed at Manhattan State as a maintenance man for many years.

Russell loved sports such as basketball and football. He also loved nothing else like a good game of Spades.

Russell leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Eugenia Webster; his aunts, Pauline Smith, Paulette Shomo, and Dottie Gibbs; sisters-in-law, Michelle and Tedra; many nieces, nephews and cousins.

A PERSONAL NOTE TO MY MOTHER:

Even though my troubles became your troubles, remember that I loved you, then, now and always. - Russell

JUST ONE DAY

Be sad for a day
And do what you need to do
And then lift up your eyes
To the wonder of the sky
And know that I loved you too.

This Too Shall Pass

When your burdens are many
And your heart is heavy
And you doubt your strength can last,
Reach up, and hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know, this too shall pass.
Oft' times we are laden
With trials and sorrows
That seem to come all too fast.
Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know, this too shall pass. When doubts and worries plague your soul. And your problems are all too vast, Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life and know this too shall pass.
When your faith is tested. And pain is so great And depression you can't seem to cast Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know this too shall pass.
