Obituary

Georgia was born to the late Odessa McCoy and Sylvester Streater on June 18, 1944 in Cheraw, South Carolina. She was an only child raised by a loving aunt, Ida Mae Streater. She attended Chesterfield City School system and after graduating high school Georgia and three of her favorite cousins moved to Paterson, NJ in 1963. Her first place of employment was Spotless Cleaners. This is where she met and married the love of her life, Roosevelt Dickerson and to this union two sons were born.

Georgia joined Christ Temple Baptist Church in Paterson where she was a faithful and dedicated member.

She lived a simple and quiet life. Cooking and baking became her second love, and she didn't mind baking for others without hesitation.

Georgia began working at Nabisco in 1970 and remained there for thirty-six years until retiring. She became very good friends with Inez Hodges and Jeannie Jackson and a host of co-workers throughout her years at Nabisco.

She is preceded in death by all of her immediate family and daughter-in-law, Stacey Dickerson.

Georgia departed her life on November 30, 2021.

She leaves to cherish her memories a loving husband of fifty years, Roosevelt Dickerson, two sons; Adrian and Keith Dickerson, three grandchildren, Jamell Dickerson, Shenoe Dickerson and Dominique Pelli, her friend of fifty years; Inez Hodges, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that became family.

Asleep

I've closed my eyes
and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and
sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...

You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding
soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because
He came for me.
-Emily Dickinson
