Rev. Frankco Harris, Organist

Jeffery Rodrick Alston was born November 10, 1966 to Ann Alston and Frankie Bullock in Brooklyn, New York.

Jeffrey was educated in the New York City Public School System and graduated from Samuel J. Tilden High School. Jeffrey had a passion for music. DJ Scorpio as he was affectionately called, spent a lot of his early years working as a DJ in the Village of NY. He connected with people from all walks of life through music. He loved getting the party started at family gatherings. He adored his nephews Calil and Rodney and was active in their lives. He enjoyed spending time with them, picking them up from school, playing video games and of course playing that good music for them. Jeffrey also had a hidden talent. He was fluent in Spanish; it was his second language. He was an excellent cook. His favorite foods were Shrimp, Orange Chicken and General Tso Chicken. Jeffrey worked for Allied Universal as a Security Officer for over 20 years.

Jeffrey was a member of Mt. Ararat Baptist Church and sung with the Men's Choir. It was there, in 2016, where Jeffrey met and fell in love with Patricia and on October 6,2018 they united in matrimony.

Jeffrey passed away suddenly at the age of 55 on November 26, 2021.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his beautiful wife Patricia Lott-Alston, stepson Michael Aaron Lott, mother Ann Alston, sisters Alicia and Jeannie Alston, nephews Calil Watson, Rodney Daniel Munnerlyn and Ian Lott, brother-in-law Manny and Telly Lott, sister-in-law Debra Lott, nieces Nija, Kiara, and Kiya, future daughter-in-law Sarah Whitfield, and a host of family and friends.
