OBITUARY

Henry T. Mallard Jr. was born to Eutha Mae Mallard and Henry T. Mallard Sr. on November 19, 1946.

During his early years he attended Madison Ave Elementary school and went on to graduate from Westside High school in 1965 and that year he had taken the team to the Basketball Championship.

From there he went into the army and served 4 years. During his time in the Army he received numerous trophies and a medal. One, the National Defense Service Medal for Expert Rifle. He also received an abundance of trophies as he toured with the Basketball team to Paris. Once he returned home from the service Henry worked for the Ford motor company where he had his vehicle customily made. He was also a member and Co- founder of the Gentleman's Club which he formed with a few friends.

Henry was widely known for his unique style of dressing and playing ball. He also had two daughters that he loved Kiesha and Kia Reynolds. In the recent years Henry left NJ to move to NYC. He loved making his way around NYC.

Henry loved to dance, travel, play ball, eat, collect his oils and spiritual collectibles. Let's not forget his Trees...

Henry T. Mallard Jr. was preceded in death, his mother and father Eutha Mae Mallard and Henry T. Mallard, his sisters Pearline and Clyde Mallard and his brother Nathaniel Mallard. He leaves to mourn his very close and loving niece and nephew Tamicka and Robert Rasheed Mallard of NJ and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

TO SAY GOODBYE

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
