Kevin Briggs was born June 2, 1956, in Newark, New Jersey to the late Willie T. Head Sr. and the late Callie M. Briggs. He was the eldest grandchild to the late Callie M. Briggs and late Richard Briggs II.

He was born, and raised in Newark, NJ, and educated in the Newark Public Schools System. He moved to California soon after graduating from Vailsburg High School. While in California, he worked for several companies in the industry of entertainment and communication. His positions included a Junior Executive with AT&T. He worked in the payroll department at Capitol Records (LA), Warner Bros Television, Disney/ABC Studios and was a Production Payroll Accountant for Netflix (Culver City Studios). Most recently, he was pursuing his bachelor's degree at Pasadena City College.

Kevin was an actor, singer, songwriter, and writer of poetry. He performed with The Keith Pringle And The Pentecostal Community Choir and recorded on their title album: Let Everything That Has Breath Praise The Lord.

Kevin was a son, brother, nephew, cousin and friend to many. Everyone who came into contact with Kevin loved and felt his spirit.

Kevin was preceded in death by both parents: two brothers, Willie T. Head, Jr. (2021) and Larry Head (2021).

He leaves to cherish his memory: his sister-in-law Sherly Head (Valdosta, GA); six nieces: Elexis Sams, ShaCora Sams, Gabrielle Sams, Sabrina Grable, Rhonda Burgman and Pamela Almozon; nephew Larry Sermon; seven aunts and uncles: Gloriest McCarty (Pasadena, CA), Dorothie C. Briggs (Dunkirk, MD), Mary Briggs (Newark, NJ), Georgia A. Briggs (Pikesville, MD), Mills Briggs and Arthur Briggs (Augusta, GA) and Larry R. Briggs (Suffern, NY); and a host of great nieces, great nephews, and other family members.

Kevin's warm and bubbly personality and spectacular sense of humor will truly be missed by his family, friends and all who knew and loved him.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

Sang Sang Sang

A Poem by Kevin Briggs

As far as I could see searching through the emotions of time the breath of an unknown force gave me happiness
as I walked through the ecstasy of its presence releasing long held tears of joy as I sang, sang, sang

No formal introduction was even necessary as peace and joy came in acting as if they've always known me while I stood in the midst of confusion hearing myself receive understanding to life with the tones of my voice as I sang, sang, sang bringing in serene vibrations with the comfort of my only love
