

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard his call
I turned my back and left it all,
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the end of the day,
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes these things to I will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I savored much,
Good family, good friends,
good times loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.

Obituary

Shauntay Rowls was called home to heaven on November 21, 2021 in Brooklyn, New York. She was born July 7, 1981 in Inwood, New York to Stephanie Needham and James Rowls,.

Shauntay was educated in the New York City School system, attending Lafayette High School in Brooklyn. Later on she would work in security for seven years before Covid. Shauntay also known as "Tay" or "Sweet Pea" was a beautiful, hardworking, caring, motivational, family oriented and loving person who believed in helping others. She loved doing hair, and cooking for her family and friends, but above all else she loved her five children and companion Shawn of fifteen years.

Shauntay now rests with her father, James Rowls.

She leaves behind precious and wonderful memories with her children, Tascia, Mekhi, Naquom, Nair Nash and companion Shawn; her mother, Stephanie Needham; four brothers, Kenyan, Marcus, Brandon and Colyn; along with aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and so many friends.

(At this time, the family asks that you keep them in your prayers.)
