

Remember Me

Speak of me as you have always done
Remember the good times, laughter and fun
Share the happy memories we've made

Do not let them wither or fade

I'll be with you in the summer's sun

And when the winter's chill has come

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze

I'm peaceful now, put you at ease

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep

But memories we've shared are yours to keep

Sometimes our final days may be a test

But remember me when I was at my best

Although things may not be the same

Don't be afraid to use my name

Let your sorrow last for just a while

Comfort each other and try to smile

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun

Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become

Obituary

David Lambert, Sr. was born on August 3, 1948 in Albany, GA to Cleveland Lambert and Mae Jessie Jones. At age 6, he and his father traveled to New Jersey where he attended the Newark Public School System. While attending South Side High School, David met and married his first love Darnell McCarter. Together, they had four children, Evonda (Von), David Jr. (DJ), Stephanie (Fatty) and Eric.

David was a hard working man. He worked for Ford Motors, General Electric, Schaivle Oil Companies and ended his employment career retiring from Best Foods Distributors in Newark, NJ in 2010. He constantly shared his work ethics with his children and grandchildren emphasizing if you work smart and hard it will eventually work out for your good.

David affectionately known by many as Go-Go earned the name during his Bartending days by being the fastest shot pouring in town and would always get the attention of everyone around when he hit the dance floor. He was a comedian that never got a check but did the job and kept everyone laughing with his great humor. He could often be seen laughing with you with his eyes closed knowing he had made you laugh so hard as planned.

In 1995, David married the love of his life, his sweetheart Beulah Crumbley affectionately known as Doll. Together they now had 9 children, 7 boys and 2 girls. David and Doll spent 26 years of marriage together and purchased a home in Orange, NJ where they raised their children and grandchildren. David passed away peacefully in Newark, NJ.

David was firm and strict in his beliefs, also straight -forward when speaking his mind. He was a good man, a good husband, a good father and a good grandfather. He was a very respectful man, well-mannered and well-groomed who took pride in his accomplishments, his family, his beliefs and in himself. He always had a story to tell you about life in general and advice .

He was preceded in death by his sons, David Lambert, Jr. (DJ), Kendall Crumbley (Ken), Lindell Crumbley (Puba), Rashan Crumbley (Rocky), sisters, Wanda Lambert, Rosie Lambert and Lillie Mae Spruill, brothers, Clifton Spruill and Alvin Ward.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his beautiful wife, Beulah Lambert, his daughters, Evonda Jordan and Stephanie Lambert-Kimbrough, his sons, Eric Lambert, Victor Lamont Crumbley (wife Kesha), and Maurice Crumbley, his sister, Darlene Spruill, his brother, Cleveland Lambert, Jr. (wife Paula), sister-in-law, Easter Jones (husband SJ), Rosemary (husband OJ), brothers-in-law, Linwood Wright (wife Diane) and Abraham Griffin, a special Uncle, Julius Spruiell, so many grandchildren who he loved so much, a host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
