Obituary

Oren Anthony Flemming was born in Georgetown, Guyana on January 1, 1959 to Edward Broomes and the late Edna Flemming. Oren has eleven siblings. His eldest brother Edward is deceased.

Oren grew up in Kingston Georgetown. The family briefly moved to Albertain where he attended the Saint Ambrose Primary School. The family then moved back to Kingston.

Growing up in Kingston, he developed a love for fishing and trawler boats. In his early years he worked as a seaman. He then moved on to working with his dad at his welding shop for several years.

His last place of employment before migrating to the United States in 1996 was the Ministry of Hydraulics. Upon migrating he worked at the neighbor car wash and our family restaurant Four Seasons in Brooklyn, New York.

Oren met his loving wife Camille many years ago in Charlotte Street, Lacytown where she lived. He was a frequent visitor to the area because his late Aunt Gloria lived there. They had two beautiful daughters Sheanna and Shanaya. Oren loved his family and embraced every moment with them.

Oren had a passion for cooking. His favorite dishes were roti and curry, fried fish and fried chicken. He was a sharp dresser and loved to flash his gold jewelry. He had one of the cleanest motorcycles in Guyana.

Unfortunately, in December 2009, he suffered a massive stroke and never fully recovered.

Oren is survived by his wife Camille, two daughters, Sheanna, Shanaya, and foster son, Jeff Jean; his dad, Edward senior, his step mother, Brenda, brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, many cousins, other relatives and special friends. Sadly, he did not live to meet his first Grandchild who is expected to be born on his Birthday January 1, 2022 or to see Shanaya graduate.

May his soul rest in peace.

Repast
(following immediately after interment)

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross The emblem of suffering and shame
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross (rugged cross)
Till my trophies at last I lay down
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

To the old rugged cross I will ever be true
It's shame and reproach gladly bear
Then he'll call me some day to my home far away
Where his glory forever I'll share

And I'll cherish the old rugged cross (rugged cross)
Till my trophies at last I lay down
And I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown

Oh Lord, my God
When I, in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
